Notice:

Disability Insurance benefits may be reduced by the amount of other income you may receive or may be entitled to receive from other sources¹ during the same Disability, for example: Social Security benefits; government compulsory benefit programs; no-fault auto laws; sick pay or salary continuation; disability or retirement benefits paid for by your Employer; state, public, or federal employee disability or retirement plans; unemployment insurance; third-party recovery amounts; etc.

Refer to the Certificate of Insurance provided by your Employer for a complete list of all potential other income offsets that may reduce your benefit or contact your MetLife benefits administrator with any questions.

What is Long Term Disability insurance?

Long Term Disability (LTD) insurance helps replace a portion of your income for an extended period of time.

Eligibility Requirements

Long Term Disability: All active full-time employees working at least 32 hours per week are eligible to participate.

How is “Disability” defined under your Plan?

Generally, you are considered disabled and eligible for long term benefits if, due to sickness, pregnancy or accidental injury, you are receiving appropriate care and treatment and are complying with the requirements of the treatment, and, you are unable to earn more than 80% of your predisability earnings at your own occupation for any employer in the Local Economy, and you are unable to perform each of the material duties of your own occupation for any employer in the Local Economy.

Following the Own Occupation period, you are considered disabled if, due to sickness, pregnancy or accidental injury, you are receiving appropriate care and treatment and complying with the requirements of treatment and you are unable to earn 40% of your predisability earnings for any employer and you are unable to perform the duties of any gainful occupation for any employer in the Local Economy for which you are reasonably qualified taking into account your training, education and experience.

For a complete description of this and other requirements that must be met, refer to the Certificate of Insurance provided by your Employer or contact your MetLife benefits administrator with any questions.

For a complete description of this and other requirements that must be met, refer to the Certificate of Insurance provided by your Employer or contact your MetLife benefits administrator with any questions

What is the benefit amount?

Long Term Disability:

The Long Term Disability benefit may help replace a portion of your predisability monthly earnings, less other income you may receive from other sources¹ during the same Disability (e.g., Social Security, Workers' Compensation, vacation pay etc.

The Core Benefit amount is:

Plan A (Non Contributory): 40% of your predisability monthly earnings of $8,333; subject to the plan's maximum monthly benefit of $3,333.

Plan B (Contributory): 60% of your predisability monthly earnings of $8,333; subject to the plan's maximum monthly benefit of $5,000.

What is the maximum monthly benefit?

The amount of the Long Term Disability benefit may not exceed the maximum monthly benefit established under the plan, regardless of your annual salary amount. The maximum under this core plan is $3,333 for Plan A and $5,000 for Plan B. Your LTD benefit will be limited to this maximum.

When do benefits begin and how long do they continue?

Long Term Disability:

Benefits begin after the end of the elimination period. The elimination period begins on the day you become disabled and is the length of time you must wait while being disabled before you are eligible to receive a benefit. Your elimination period for Long Term Disability is 180 days for Plan A & B.

Your plan's maximum benefit period and any specific limitations are described in the Certificate of Insurance provided by your Employer.

Questions & Answers

Q. Can I still receive benefits if I return to work part time?

A. Maybe. As long as you are disabled and meet the terms of your Disability plan, you may qualify for adjusted Disability benefits.

Your plan offers financial, and Rehabilitation incentives designed to help you to return to work when appropriate, even on a part-time basis when you participate in an approved Rehabilitation Program.

While disabled, you may receive up to 60% of your predisability earnings for up to 24 months following your return to work when combining your disability benefit, Rehabilitation Incentives, your work earnings, and income from other sources. With the Rehabilitation Incentive you can get a 10% increase in your monthly benefit.

The Family Care Incentive provides reimbursement up to $250 per month for eligible expenses, such as childcare, during the first 24 months of Disability.

You may be eligible for the Moving Expense Incentive if you incur expenses in order to move to a new residence recommended as part of the Rehabilitation Program. Expenses must be approved in advance.

Q. Are there any exclusions for Pre-Existing Conditions?

A. Yes. Your plan may not cover a sickness or accidental injury that arose in the months prior to your participation in the plan. A complete description of the pre-existing condition exclusion is included in the Certificate of Insurance provided by your Employer or contact your MetLife benefits administrator with any questions.

Q. Are there any exclusions to my coverage?

A. Yes. Your plan does not cover any Disability which results from or is caused or contributed to by:

- War, whether declared or undeclared, or act of war, insurrection, rebellion;
- Active participation in a riot;
- Intentionally self-inflicted injury or attempted suicide;
- Commission of or attempt to commit a felony.

Q. Are there any limitations to my coverage?

A. For Long Term Disability, limited benefits apply for specific conditions:

If you are disabled due to alcohol, drug or substance abuse or addiction, we will limit your disability benefits to a lifetime maximum of Disability for 24 months. During Your Disability, we require you to participate in an alcohol, drug or substance abuse or addiction recovery program recommended by a physician.

Benefits will end at the earliest of

- The date you receive 24, months of disability benefit payments;
- The date you cease or refuse to participate in the recovery program referred above; or
- The date you complete such recovery program.

If you are disabled due to mental or nervous disorders or diseases and neuromuscular, musculoskeletal, or soft tissue disorder and fibromyalgia and chronic fatigue syndrome and related conditions and self-reported conditions, we will limit your disability benefits to a lifetime maximum equal to the lesser of:

- 24 months; or
- The Maximum Benefit Period.

Your Disability benefits will be limited as stated above for mental or nervous disorder or disease except for:

- schizophrenia; or
- neurocognitive disorders; or
- bi-polar 1 disorder

If you are confined in a Hospital or Mental Health Facility at the end of the period shown above for which benefits are to be paid, we will continue Your Monthly Benefits until the end of Your Hospital or Mental Health Facility confinement.

Other limitations or exclusions to your coverage may apply. Please review your Certificate of Insurance provided by your Employer for specific details or contact your benefits administrator with any questions.

The "Plan Overview" provides only a brief overview of the LTD plan. A more complete description of the benefits provisions, conditions, limitations, and exclusions will be included in the Certificate of Insurance, Summary Plan Description and/or other plan documents. Long Term Disability ("LTD") coverage is provided under a group insurance policy issued to your employer by MetLife. This LTD coverage terminates when your employment ceases, when you cease to be an eligible employee, when your LTD contributions cease (if applicable) or upon termination of the group contract by your employer. Like most group disability insurance policies, MetLife policies contain certain exclusions, exceptions, waiting periods, reductions, limitations and terms for keeping them in force. Ask your MetLife group representative for complete costs and details .

These policies provide disability income insurance only. For policies issued in New York, they do NOT provide basic hospital, basic medical, or major medical insurance as defined by the New York State Insurance Department. The expected benefit ratio for these policies is at least 50%. This ratio is the portion of future premiums that MetLife expects to return as benefits when averaged over all people with the applicable policy.

*Changes have been made to your Plan as of the Amendment Effective Date listed above. Please refer to your Certificate of Insurance/Certificate Rider for more details or contact your benefits administrator with any questions.
